

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: March 6, 1995

SUBJECT: SB 222 - HB 815

This bill, if enacted, will remove the defense to prosecution for accessory after the fact for relatives who merely harbor or conceal an offender. This offense is a Class E felony.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in state expenditures of $42,790 for incarceration*. This amount is based upon 10 convictions each year receiving a sentence of one year with 110 days actually being served at a cost of $38.90 per day.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

**Section 9-6-119, TCA, requires that: For any law enacted after July 1, 1986, which results in a net increase in periods of imprisonment in state facilities, there shall be appropriated from recurring revenues the estimated operating cost of such law.*
